

No-Show Policy for ICONIP 2024

The 31st International Conference on Neural Information Processing (ICONIP 2024), scheduled from 2–6 December 2024 in Auckland, New Zealand, is committed to maintaining the integrity and quality of its proceedings.

To uphold this standard, the following No-Show Policy will apply:

- Mandatory Attendance: All authors with accepted papers must ensure that (1) in case of in-person presentation – at least one listed author is physically present at the session to deliver the scheduled presentation or (2) in case of online presentation – at least one listed author is virtually present at the session to attend the Q&A related to their presentation, during the time slot assigned in the official conference programme available here: <https://iconip2024.org/programme/>
- Consequences of Absence: (1) In case of in-person participation – if no listed presenter is present to deliver the presentation or (2) in case of online participation – if no listed presenter is present during the online playing of the submitted recorded video to take Q&A, the corresponding paper will be deemed a no-show.
- Exclusion from Proceedings: The no-show papers will be excluded from the conference proceedings and will not be archived in the conference’s official publications or made available through indexing services associated with ICONIP 2024.
- Exceptions: Exceptions may be considered only in cases of documented emergencies. Authors must notify the conference organisers via email (iconip2024@confer.co.nz) as soon as possible and provide appropriate documentation for consideration.
- Responsibilities of Presenting Authors: Presenting authors are advised to plan their attendance (in-person/online) well in advance and confirm their availability during the session. It is their responsibility to check the final conference programme for the accurate presentation schedule.

As a presenting author of an accepted paper at the ICONIP 2024, you agree to comply with this no-show policy which aims to ensuring the active participation of presenters and fostering a meaningful exchange of knowledge at the conference.

We thank all participants for their cooperation and understanding.
